Yesterday's Dreams Today's Realities

YESTERDAY'S DREAMS TODAY'S REALITIES was the theme chosen for our 1995 yearbook. This theme was appropriate because all of us have a continuous dream of moving forward. We have overcome many unforeseen difficulties in creating this yearbook.

There are a few people I would like to thank for their help: my staff: Marsha Reynolds, Deni Benns, Heather Bramlet, Tricia Spotanski, and Jason Zimmer. I would also like to thank Chuck and Lucy Conner, our Herff Jones Representatives, for all their time, effort, and help.

Hopefully, in looking through this book, you will realize how much hard work and dedication were put into this book. But most of all, I hope you are pleased with the results of all our work. As you can see yesterday's dream has become today's reality.

Enjoy the Book!

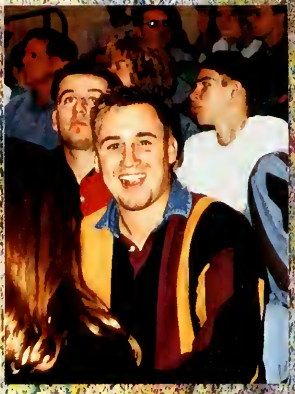
STUDENT LIFE

Boy, is this a happy face or what?

They look like they are getting into trouble.

I wish we had seats.



If they smile any harder their faces will break

What is he so happy about?

These people need to get into the game.

So, is this what you want?

Boy, these people are definitely ready to sign you up for something.

They are strappin' on the feedbag.

Taking a break.

I think I ate something bad.

Wait, I am not ready.

Deni tries to concentrate.

We are going to class.

Boy, she is really deep in thought.

I think this walk gets longer everyday.

Does anyone want to buy a ticket?

Do not get me off track.

I have got to get this done for class.

These shoes were made for walkin.

The many faces of McKendree.

Deni, you are such a ditz.

See our pretty flowers?

We want you!

Listen, dog, I want you to come this way.

Well how do you do?

So is this grub any good?

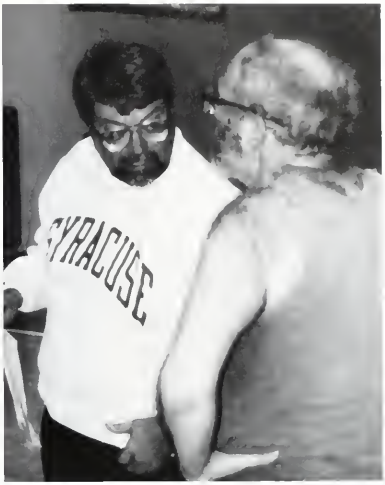
Please don't hurt me

I hope this is not supposed to be a pyramid.

Well, what do you think we should try now?

I think I am supposed to be shooting.



Hey, these students really can play.

I thought you said you could play ball.

Two, four, six, eight, who do we appreciate?

That is the wrong way!

Good game, good game, I think you cheated, good game.

Hope he doesn't have gas.

Now, we must all pray for the best.

This will work if you just do what I say.

Just what are you lookin' at?

Hey, don't be pushin' on me.

What a hangtime.

I got it.

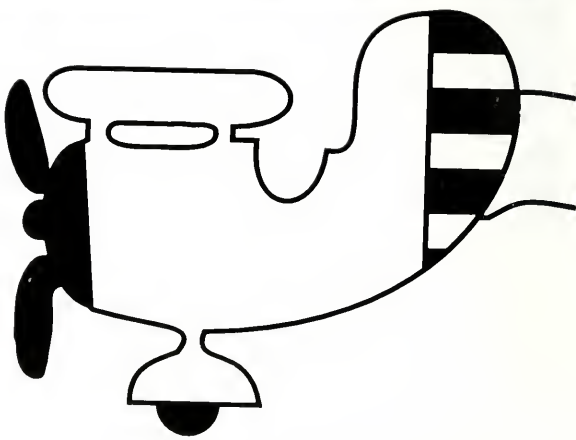
You have got to be kiddin' me!

They are not taking my ball!

O.K. guys, what is the strategy for today?

Take that!

Guard the water, and tackle those who try to get it.



I said, get out of my way!

My but is really gettin' numb.

Just try and stop me!
